

I don't think you realize just how much I crave you The thought of finally being able to hold you, to feel your heartbeat against mine it drives me absolutely wild💋🔥.

Every time we talk it only makes me want you more and the wait feels like a beautiful kind of torture. Just know when the time finally comes, every ounce of this desire I've been holding back is going to be yours and I promise it'll be worth every moment we've waited❤️🎩
